

Charlotte Museum of History

Charlotte, North Carolina

Images courtesy of the Charlotte Museum of History

The Charlotte Museum of History is a collections-based museum and 1774 historic homesite in Charlotte, NC.

Opened in 1976, the museum is located on eight-acres of beautiful woodlands. In 1996 a new 36,000 square foot museum building was completed.

Client: Charlotte Museum of History
Capital Budget: $28 million
Architect: Copeland Office Group
White Oak's Role: Strategic Master Plan, Visitor Research, Building and Site Room Book

White Oak worked with CMH in 2008 to assist them with the growth of their existing museum. The result is a visionary Master Plan that is being implemented over four phases, in order to raise capital in increments and to allow the organization time to grow in capacity.

